Camp Philosophy

The camp will focus on having fun while developing the complete lacrosse player. Fundamentals are always an emphasis but camp will also include specific game situational training from both the attack and defensive perspective. Campers will enjoy the daily competitions and camp games all while taking their skills to the next level. The Verona lacrosse camp is open to everyone from the experienced player to the beginner. The players will be divided by gender, grade, and skill level to ensure everyone is challenged. Camp will provide developmentally appropriate activities for all skill levels to ensure each camper experiences success.

Come, have fun and bring your game to the next level

Please bring the following with you to camp:

Girls– Stick, mouth guard, goggles, a water bottle and snack

Boys– a helmet, mouthpiece, shoulder pads, elbow pads, stick, water bottle and snack

Camp Staff

Boys Staff

Rob Hill– This is Coach Hills 5th year coaching in Verona, and his 2nd year as head coach. Prior to coming to Verona he was an Assistant Coach at Clifton HS and was a goalie for Nutley HS. (1999). As an coach and educator Coach Hill brings his love of teaching kids as well as his enthusiasm and passion for the game of lacrosse.

Adam Ahmad– Adam comes to Verona with 10 years of lacrosse experience. After graduating from Clifton HS he went on to play four years of collegiate lacrosse at Montclair State University where he played attack, midfield, and specialized in face-offs. In addition to variety coaching experience Adam has also worked with mini laxers while volunteering with the Clifton youth lacrosse program. Adam truly enjoys being apart of the Verona program and looks forward to building the skills of the future of Verona lacrosse.

Dave Giarrusso– is the current head coach of Seton Hall Preparatory School. Before that he was at the Pingry School where he helped them win their first Non Public B State Championship. He played collegiately at the University of Vermont, where he was a four year starter, captain and MVP. He began his coaching career at Saint Ignatius Prep in San Francisco, where he led the team to three straight California State championships and an undefeated season in 2002. He was voted Northern California coach of the year four times and Man of the Year for his effort in getting the sport sanctioned by the state. He was recently inducted into the Northern California lacrosse Hall of Fame. Coach Giarrusso has been the head coach of the Garden State Lacrosse Challenge Essex County team the past four years. Dave is also a lecturer for the Positive Coaching Alliance.

Girls Staff

Suzanne Giarrusso– Coach Giarrusso is entering her 7th season as head coach at Verona HS. She adds over 15 years of coaching experience including 3 years as the head coach at Pingry and 3 years coaching in California where she lead her team to a Northern California Championship. In addition to her coaching success Coach Giarrusso also comes with playing experience having played for Montclair HS and Bucknell University.

Barbara Erickson—Coach Erickson has over 25 years of experience in education and coaching. During her nine year coaching tenure as the Ridge High School Head Girls Lacrosse Coach she led her teams to an impressive 140-43-2. Her teams enjoyed the successes of county and league championships, as well as advancing to state sectional and group finals. In 2000, Coach Erickson was named the “Courier News Coach of the Year,” and most recently was named the “2012 Star Ledger NJ State Coach of the Year.”
